Privacy Policy of The Photographic Society of New York (PSNY)

We do not collect any specialized Personal Information about you. This includes information about your race or ethnicity, religious or philosophical beliefs, sex life, sexual orientation, political opinions, trade union membership, information about your health, genetic and biometric data, and information about criminal convictions and offenses.

HOW WE COLLECT YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

You may give us your Personal Information by filling in forms or providing other information via our Site. This includes Personal Information you provide when you become a member of PSNY, enroll in online courses, volunteer for PSNY positions, request or participate in services, programs or activities, receive our publications, request information to be sent to you, or give us feedback.

HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We will only use your Personal Information as the law permits.

Data protection law in Europe requires a “lawful basis” for collecting and retaining Personal Information from citizens or residents of the European Economic Area. PSNY’s lawful bases include:

- Performing the contract we have with you: In certain circumstances, we need your Personal Information to comply with our contractual obligation to deliver certain services and benefits, enable members to participate in programs and activities, and enable website visitors to view the Site, including exhibitions, competitions, and portfolios.
- Legal compliance: Sometimes the law says we need to collect and use your Personal Information. For example, tax laws require us to retain records of membership dues.
- Legitimate interests: This is a technical phrase in data protection law that means we have a good and fair reason to use your Personal Information and we do so in ways that do not hurt your interests and rights. We sometimes require your Personal Information to pursue our legitimate interests in a way that might reasonably be expected as part of running our business and that does not materially impact your rights, freedom, or interests.

For example, we use identity, device, and location information to prevent fraud and abuse and to keep the Site and our services secure. We may also send you promotional communications about our services, subject to your right to control whether we do so.

We analyze how users interact with our Site so we can understand better what elements of the design are working well and which are not working so well. This allows us to improve and develop the quality of the online experience we offer all our users. We may also ask you questions relating to your user preferences in order to better serve you and improve the use of our Site. Providing information regarding your usage and preferences is always voluntary.

We may aggregate and use certain automatically collected Personal Information (“Aggregate Data”) as statistical or demographic data for any purpose. For example, we may use Aggregate Data to calculate the percentage of users accessing a specific Site feature.

We may use your Personal Information to form a view on what we think you may want or need, or what may be of interest to you. This is how we decide which programs, services, newsletters, and offers may be relevant for you.

We may contact you to administer contests you enter and notify you of the results.

We may contact you to investigate or take any action regarding illegal activity or any violations of our terms of service.

We may disclose Personal Information if required by law (for example, to comply with a subpoena, warrant, court order, or legal process) or when necessary to protect our rights, avoid litigation, protect your safety or the safety of others, investigate fraud, and/or respond to a government request. We may also disclose information about you if we determine that such disclosure should be made for reasons of national security, law enforcement, or other issues of public importance.

DATA RETENTION

We will retain your Personal Information for as long as your account is active, your information is needed to provide you services, or as required to fulfill our legal obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce our agreements. To determine the appropriate retention period for Personal Information, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the Personal Information, the potential risk of harm from unauthorized use or disclosure of your Personal Information, the purposes for which we process your Personal Information and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

If you wish to delete your account or request that we no longer use your information to provide you services contact us at psnymessagecenter@gmail.com.
